

0.0.1 Guarantor

1. For four liabilities, O bhikkhus, there is not any guarantor, whether samana or brahmana or Deva or Maro or Brahma or any one in the world. What four?
2. “Let what is liable to old age not grow old.” There is not any guarantor, whether samana or brahmana or Deva or Maro or Brahma or any one in the world.
3. “Let what is liable to sickness not get sick.” There is not any guarantor, whether samana or brahmana or Deva or Maro or Brahma or any one in the world.
4. “Let what is liable to death not die.” There is not any guarantor, whether samana or brahmana or Deva or Maro or Brahma or any one in the world.
5. “For those evil kamma which are defiling, renewing a being, dreadful, ripening in suffering, bound up with future birth, old age and death, let their results not actualize.” There is not any guarantor, whether samana or brahmana or Deva or Maro or Brahma or any one in the world.
6. “For these four liabilities, O bhikkhus, there is not any guarantor, whether samana or brahmana or Deva or Maro or Brahma or any one in the world.”
