One accomplishes final knowledge in just this very life beforehand. If one does not accomplish final knowledge in just this very life beforehand, then one accomplishes final knowledge at the time of death. If one does not accomplish final knowledge in just this very life beforehand, if one does not accomplish final knowledge at the time of death, then from the complete destruction of the five fetters that binds one to the near shore, one comes to be an attainer of nibbana between [death and arising]. If one does not accomplish final knowledge in just this very life beforehand, if one does not accomplish final knowledge at the time of death, if from the complete destruction of the five fetters that binds one to the near shore, one does not come to be an attainer of nibbana between [death and arising], then from the complete destruction of the five fetters that binds one to the near shore, one comes to be an attainer of nibbana upon arrival.
