“Where water and earth,
fire and air find no footing;
where long and short
minute and massive, beautiful and ugly;
where name and form
are completely held in check?”

1. Therein the answer is:

“Non-manifesting consciousness
endless entirely luminous;
here water and earth
fire and air find no footing;
here long and short
minute and massive, beautiful and ugly;
here name and form
are completely held in check;
with the cessation of consciousness,
there this is held in check.”
