2. O friend Anuruddha, “one beyond training, one beyond training,” it is said. To what extent, O friend, is there one beyond training? “One of full maturation of the four establishments of mindfulness, O friend, is one beyond training. Which four? Here, O friend, having put away worldly covetousness and longing, a bhikkhu abides in the body perceiving in accordance with the body as an ardent, contemplative and mindful one. Having put away worldly covetousness and longing, he abides in feelings perceiving in accordance with feelings as an ardent, contemplative and mindful one. Having put away worldly covetousness and longing, he abides in states of mind perceiving in accor-
