sāvatthiyaṃ

1. This body, O bhikkhus, is not for you. It is also not for another. This, O bhikkhus, is old kamma, especially conditioned, especially intended, to be seen as something to be felt.

is contact. In dependence on contact there is feeling. In dependence on feeling there is thirsting. In dependence on thirsting there is undertaking. In dependence on undertaking there is being. In dependence on being there is birth. In dependence on birth there are old age and death, together with sorrow, lamentation, physical suffering, mental suffering, and despair. Thus arises this entire amassment of suffering.
