

0.0.1 The Great Forty

1. Thus was heard by me: At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling in Savatthi at Jeta's Grove, Anathapindikā's Park. At that place the Auspicious One addressed the bhikkhus. "Bhikkhus." "Yes, Bhante" those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

2. "I will teach you, O bhikkhus, the noble right samadhi with its cause, with its requisites. Do you listen to that and mind it well. I will speak."

3. "Yes Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. the Auspicious One said this:

4. And what, O bhikkhus, is noble right samadhi with its cause, with its requisites? That is: right view, right thought, right speech, right action, right livelihood, right effort, right mindfulness. That which, O bhikkhus, is the unique pre-eminent state of mind equipped with these seven factors. This is called, O bhikkhus, noble right samadhi with its proper cause, with its proper requisites.

5. Therein, O bhikkhus, right view comes first. And how, O bhikkhus, does right view come first? "One wisely understands wrong view as wrong view." "One wisely understands right view as right view." That is one's right view.

6. And what, O bhikkhus, is wrong view? “There is not what is offered, there is not what is given, there is not what is sacrificed. There are no fruits and results of kamma, of what is well done and badly done. There is not this world, there is not another world, there is not mother, there is not father, there are no beings from spontaneous birth, there is not in the world samanas and brahmanas who have come to the right path, entered upon the right path, those who, having realized by themselves this world and the other world with higher knowledge, they cause to make it known.” This, O bhikkhus, is wrong view.

7. And what, O bhikkhus, is right view? Right view I say, O bhikkhus, is a dyad. There is, O bhikkhus, right view [connected] with asavas, partaking in merits, ripening in appropriations. There is, O bhikkhus, right view that is noble, asava-free, supramundane, a factor of the path.

who, having realized by themselves this world and the other world with higher knowledge, they cause to make it known.” This, O bhikkhus, is right view [connected] with asavas, partaking in merits, ripening in appropriations.

9. And what, O bhikkhus, is the right view that is noble, asava-free, supramundane, a factor of the path? That which, O bhikkhus, is the wisdom, the faculty of wisdom, the power of wisdom, the investigation of dhammas awakening factor, the right view path factor, of one whose mind is noble, of one whose mind is asava-free, one endowed with the noble path and is maturing the noble path. This is called, O bhikkhus, right view that is noble, asava-free, supramundane, a factor of the path. One makes effort to abandon wrong view having entered upon right view. This is one’s right effort. Mindfully one abandons wrong view, mindfully one enters upon and abides in right view. That is one’s right mindfulness. Thus these three dhammas runs about right view in circle, that is: right view, right effort and right mindfulness.
