1. At one time the Auspicious One dwelled in Vesali at the Gotamaka Shrine. At that place the Auspicious One addressed the bhikkhus: “Bhikkhus.” “Bhante,” those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

2. O bhikkhus, I teach the Dhamma with higher knowledge, not without higher knowledge. O bhikkhus, I teach the Dhamma with [root] cause, not without [root] cause. O bhikkhus, I teach the Dhamma with miraculous [results], not without miraculous [results].

3. That for you, O bhikkhus, the Dhamma is taught with higher knowledge, not without higher knowledge, taught with [root] cause, not without [root] cause, taught with miraculous [results], not without miraculous [results], my advice should be acted upon, my instructions should be acted upon.

4. Now this is enough, O bhikkhus, for you to be joyful, enough for you to be delighted, enough for you to be elated [thus:] “The Auspicious One is rightly self-awakened, the Dhamma is well-proclaimed by the Auspicious One, the sangha has entered upon the right path.”
