1. Then, the venerable Malunkyaputta visited with the Auspicious One. Upon arrival, he bowed down to the Auspicious One and sat down to one side. Having sat down to one side, the venerable Malunkyaputta said this to the Auspicious One. “It would be good, O Bhante, if the Auspicious One would teach me the Dhamma in brief, so that, having heard the Dhamma from the Auspicious One, I might dwell alone, withdrawn, vigilant, ardent, resolute.”

2. “Here now, Malunkya-putta, what should we say to the young bhikkhus, in as much as you, an aged bhikkhu, old, an old man, advanced in years, reached decay, asks for advice in brief?”

He thus lives mindfully.
For one dismantling suffering like this,
Nibbana is said to be near.

Not inflamed by lust for
dhammas,
having cognized a dham-
ma he is mindful.
He feels it with a dispassionate mind,
and does not remain
holding to it.
For he who cognizes a
dhamma,
and experiences the feeling in this way,
The khandhas are exhausted, not heaped
up.
He thus lives mindfully.
For one dismantling suffering like this,
Nibbana is said to be near.

12. It is in this way, Malunkya-putta, that the detailed meaning of this brief statement spoken by me should be understood.” Then, the venerable Mālunkya-putta, having delighted, having rejoiced in the Auspicious One’s words, having risen up from his seat, having bowed down, having circumambulated the Auspicious One, he departed.

13. Then, the venerable Malunkya-putta, dwelling alone, withdrawn, vigilant, ardent, resolute, not long entered upon and dwelled in that unsurpassed consummation of the life of purity for the sake of which sons of clansmen just rightly go forth from the household life into homelessness, having realized it with his own higher knowledge in just this very life. He understood: “Destroyed is birth, lived is the life of purity, done is what had to be
