1. “Form, O bhikkhus, is impermanent, changing, becoming otherwise. Feeling is impermanent, changing, becoming otherwise. Perception is impermanent, changing, becoming otherwise. Sankharas are impermanent, changing, becoming otherwise. Consciousness is impermanent, changing, becoming otherwise.

2. He who, O bhikkhus, has faith in and gains affinity to these dhammas thus, this is called a saddhanusari [faith follower], one who has entered upon the fixed course of rightness, who has entered the plane of the true man, who has transcended the plane of the puthujjana. He is unable to do that deed which having done such a deed, he

3. For he who, O bhikkhus, approves of these dhammas thus, [if] there is a measure of understanding with wisdom, this is called a dhammanusari [dhamma follower], one who has entered upon the fixed course of rightness, who has entered the plane of the true man, who has transcended the plane of the puthujjana. He is unable to do that deed which having done such a deed, he would arise in hell, or the animal womb, or the sphere of ghost.
