0. At Savatthi

1. This samsara is without a discoverable beginning. A first point is not discerned of beings roaming and wandering on, hindered by ignorance and fettered by thirst. For a long time, O bhikkhus, you have experienced suffering. So what do you think, O bhikkhus, which is more? The stream of tears that have flowed forth from crying out-loud and lamenting in this long time roaming and wandering on, being associated with what is unpleasing, being separated from what is pleasing, or the water in the four great oceans?

that? [Because] this samsara is without a discoverable beginning. A first point is not discerned of beings roaming and wandering on, hindered by ignorance and fettered by thirst. This much, O bhikkhus, is just enough to be enstranged in all sankharas, enough to fade away in them, enough to be liberated in them.
