1. At one time the Auspicious One dwelled in Kosambi at Ghosita's Park. Then in the morning time, the Auspicious One, having dressed, having taken bowl and robes, entered Kosambiya for alms food. Having wandered in Kosambiya for alms food, after his meal, having gone back after alms gathering, he set his dwelling place in order by himself. Having taken bowl and robes, without having informed his personal attendants, without taking leave of the bhikkhu Sangha, he set out wondering alone without a companion.

2. Then not long after the Auspicious One had left, by which way the venerable Ananda was, by that way a certain bhikkhu approached. Having approached, he said this to the venerable Ananda: "Alas! O friend Ananda, the stages, by which way Parileyyaka was, by that way he arrived. There at Parileyyaka, the Auspicious One just dwelled at the root of an auspicious Sal tree. Later on, by which way the venerable Ananda was, by that way many bhikkhus approached. Having approached the venerable Ananda, they exchanged friendly greetings. Having exchanged friendly greetings and amiable talk, they sat down to one side. Having sat to one side, those bhikkhus said this to the venerable Ananda. “O friend Ananda, a Dhamma talk face to face from the Auspicious One has not been heard by us for a very long time. O friend Ananda, we wish to hear a Dhamma talk face to face from the Auspicious One” which way Auspicious One was, by that way the venerable Ananda approached, along with those bhikkhus. Having approached the Auspicious One, having bowed down, they sat down to one side. Having sat to one side, the Auspicious One instructed, exhorted, inspired, and gladdened those bhikkhus with a Dhamma talk. At that time, a reflection arose in the mind of a certain bhikkhu thus: “Precisely, how knowing, how seeing, does the immediate destruction of asavas come to be?”

On that occasion the Auspicious One is not to be pursued by anyone”.

6. So then the Auspicious One, having known the reflection in the mind of that bhikkhu with his [own] mind, addressed the bhikkhus: “The Dhamma, O bhikkhus, has been thoroughly taught by me. The four establishments
