1. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling in Sāvatti at Jeta's Grove, Anathapindika's Park. It so happened that in the morning, the venerable Ananda, having dressed, having taken bowl and robe, by which [way led to] the female lay disciple, Migasala's house, by that way he approached. Having approached, he sat down on a prepared seat. Then, by which [way led to] the venerable Ananda, by that way the female lay disciple, Migasala approached. Having approached the venerable Ananda, having bowed down, she sat down to one side. Having sat down to one side, the female lay disciple, Migasala said this to the venerable Ananda:

has also done that by which great learning of [the Dhamma] comes to be, who has penetrated [the Dhamma] by view; who gains temporary liberation.

30. This individual, O Ananda, is more brilliant and more excellent than the former individual. What is the reason for that? This is because, O Ananda, the stream of Dhamma carries along that individual.” Who could understand that difference except for the Tathagata. Therefore, Ananda, let you not be [one of] those who are judgmental on individuals, do not you hold judgments on individuals. Individuals, O Ananda, holding judgment on others harm [themselves]. But I, Ananda, or else someone like me, may hold judgment on individuals.

31. But who, Ananda, is the female lay disciple, Migasala, a foolish, unaccomplished woman with a woman's wisdom. And who have knowledge of persons or individuals pertaining to this world and the world beyond? These ten individuals, O Ananda, are to be found in the world.

32. "Given the form of virtue Purana was endowed with, O Ananda, if Isidatta would have been endowed with that form of virtue, then Isidatta's destination of final knowledge comes not to be in this world like Purana. And given the form of wisdom Isidatta was endowed with, O Ananda, if Purana would have been endowed with that form of wisdom, then Purana's destination of final knowledge too comes not to be in this world like Isidatta. Thus, O Ananda, both these
