"Indeed, O bhikkhus, that bhikkhus who delight in company, who are delighted with company, who are devoted to delight in company, who delight in a group, who are delighted with a group, who are devoted to delight in a group, will find pleasure while alone in seclusion," this possibility is not to be found. "That one not delighting in seclusion while alone will grasp the sign of the mind," this possibility is not to be found. "That one not grasping the sign of the mind will fulfill right view," this possibility is not to be found. "That one not having fulfilled right view will fulfill right samadhi," this possibility is not to be found. "That one not having fulfilled right samadhi will abandon the fetters," this possibility is not to be found. "That one not having abandon the fetters will realize nibbana," this possibility is not to be found.
