

0.0.1 Delicate

1. I was delicate, O bhikkhus, supremely delicate, excessively delicate. Indeed at my father's residence, these lotus ponds were built purposely for me. In one entirely white lotuses were planted, in one red lotuses, in one blue lotuses. I, O bhikkhus, did not wear sandalwood that were not from Kasi. My turban, O bhikkhus, were from Kasi, my jackets were from Kasi, my inner robes were from Kasi, my outer robes were from Kasi. A white parasol, O bhikkhus, was held over me day and night [with the thought]: "Let neither cold, nor heat, nor grass, nor dust, nor dew touch him." For me, O bhikkhus, there were three mansions: one for the cold season, one for the hot season, one for the rainy season. During the four months of the rainy season, O bhikkhus, I amused myself in the rainy season mansion with entirely female musicians without descending to the lower floors of the mansion. And just as, O bhikkhus, at other residences, servants, labourers and employees were offered meal of rice husk porridge accompanied with sour gruel, in exactly the same way, O bhikkhus, at my father's residence, servants, labourers and employees were offered meal of fine rice accompanied with meat.

2. Of me being endowed with such great fortune, O bhikkhus, with such delicacy, it occurred to me: "For the Dhamma-deaf puthujjana, himself being liable to old age, not exempt, having seen others who are old, becomes troubled, humiliated, disgusted, having overlooked his own [liability]. But if I, being liable to old age, not exempt, having seen others who are old, were to become troubled, humiliated, disgusted, that would not be proper for me.” Of me, O bhikkhus, reflecting thus, I abandoned all the youth’s intoxication with youth.

3. the Dhamma-deaf kho puthujjana himself vyādhidhammo being (there is or it is that case) vyādhim anatīto, other (or after) vyādhitaṃ having seen is being aṭṭa, is being hara, is disgusted at, only (or simply or really) attāna other (or final knowledge) atiyitvā⁵, aham too (or also or even) khomhi vyādhidhammo, vyādhim anatīto, I only (or simply or really) and nevertheless (or ever so) vyādhidhammo being (there is or it is that case) vyādhim anatīto, other (or after) vyādhitaṃ having seen would (or may) aṭṭiyati would (or may) depressed (or vexed) would (or may) is disgusted at, na me that may be (or become or occur) they (or present part.: being or ing) patirūpati’. of/for that (or him) of me O bhikkhu s thus paṭisañcikkhato which (or he/she who) ārogye ārogyamado, so all so pahīyi.
