

0.1 Fear and Dread

1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling in Sāvatti at Jeta's Grove, Anathapindikā's Park. Then, the brahmin Janussoṇi visited with the Auspicious One. Upon arrival, he exchanged friendly greetings with the Auspicious One. Having exchanged friendly greetings and cordial talk, he sat down to one side. Having sat down to one side, the brahmin Janussoṇi said this to the Auspicious One:

12. It occurred to me thus, O Brahmin: Whatever samanas or brahmanas with perplexity and doubt make use of dwelling places in remote forest thickets, then indeed with perplexity and doubt as cause, those venerable samanas and brahmanas invoke unskillful fear and dread. But I am not one who makes use of dwelling places in remote forest thickets with perplexity or doubt. I have crossed over doubt. I am indeed a certain one among those ariyas gone beyond doubt who make use of dwelling places in remote forest thickets. Seeing this crossing over doubt within myself, O Brahmin, I dwelt even more unafraid in the forest.
