

0.0.1 Auspicious Signs

lakkhaṇasuttaṃ

1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Savatthi in Jeta's Grove, Anathapindika's Park. At that place the Auspicious One addressed the bhikkhus: "Bhikkhus." "Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

evaṃ me sutāṃ: ekaṃ samayaṃ bhagavā sāvattiyā viharati jetavane anāthapiṇḍikassa ārāme. tatra kho bhagavā bhikkhū āmantesi 'bhikkhavo'ti. 'bhadante'ti1 te bhikkhū bhagavato paccassosum. bhagavā etadavoca:

2. There are thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. If he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword. If however, he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world. What are those thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. (1) The three good conducts result in firmly planted feet which prognosticates unshakeability suppatiṭṭhitapādalakkhaṇam (1)

37. Whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, that the Tathagata, while being a human being, firmly undertook wholesome dhammas, continuously undertaking good bodily conduct, good verbal conduct, good mental conduct, giving and sharing, undertaking and observing the uposatha precepts, duly paying respects to mother, duly paying respects to father, duly paying respects to samanas, duly paying respects to brahmanas, duly paying respects to family elders, and any other highly wholesome dhammas; cāyitāya aññataraññataresu ca adhikusalesu dhammesu.

38. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

40. Endowed with that auspicious sign, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

48. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

etamatthaṃ bhagavā avoca. tatthetaṃ vuccati:

“In truth and in Dhamma, in taming and in self-control,
in integrity, relying on virtue and uposatha observances, delighting in giving, non-harming and nonviolence,
firmly undertaken, perfectly practiced, that kamma by which he went to the deva world,
and experienced pleasure and enjoyment.
Having passed away from there, coming again
to this world,
by which he is one who touches his feet evenly on the earth.

The auspicious sign interpreters having assembled, they declared: his even stance will be unshakeable, for a householder or again for one gone forth, that auspicious sign clearly expresses that meaning.
 He is unshakeable living at home, conqueror of other enemies, crushing his enemies, any human being in this world. The fruits of kamma for him is unshakeability.
 But if that such-like one goes forth, delighting in the desire for renunciation, seeing clearly, being the foremost, he surely does not go to shakeability,
 the greatest of men, indeed, this, for him is the natural course.”

was well done.

Having passed away from there, coming again
to this world,

he gains three auspicious signs here, having broad and high heels, brahma-like straight [body] with beautiful well-formed limbs.

With beautiful arms, the young boy is nicely shaped, properly formed.

 His soft and tender fingers are long, three auspicious signs of the foremost of excellent men,
 they reveal the boy living for a long time.
 If he is a lay person, he continues to live for a long time, longer still if he goes forth, that is because he prolongs his life from the mastery of psychic power.
 Thus, longevity is the prognosis of that sign.
