

0.0.1 Auspicious Signs

1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Savatthi in Jeta's Grove, Anathapindika's Park. At that place the Auspicious One addressed the bhikkhus: "Bhikkhus." "Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

2. There are thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. If he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword. If however, he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world. What are those thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword. If however, he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world.

36. These thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, are also remembered by outside seers. But they don't understand: "It is because of having done this kamma that this auspicious sign is obtained."

(1) The three good conducts result in firmly planted feet
which prognosticates unshakeability

37. Whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, that the Tathagata, while being a human being, firmly undertook wholesome dhammas, continuously undertaking good bodily conduct, good verbal conduct, good mental conduct, giving and sharing, undertaking and observing the uposatha precepts, duly paying respects to mother, duly paying respects to father, duly paying respects to samanas, duly paying respects to brahmanas, duly paying respects to family elders, and any other highly wholesome dhammas;

38. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

39. He has firmly planted feet. He places his feet down on the ground evenly, he lifts them up evenly, he touches the entire soles of his feet on the ground evenly.

40. Endowed with that auspicious sign, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

41. Being a king, what does he gain?

42. He is unshakeable by any human being who is an opponent, an adversary.

43. Being a king, this is what he gains.

44. If however, he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world.

45. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?

46. He is unshakeable with regard to internal or external opponents or adversaries, whether by lust or hate or delusion or by a samana or brahmana or deva or mara or Brahma or any one in the world.

47. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.

48. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

“In truth and in Dhamma, in taming and in self-control,
in integrity, relying on virtue and uposatha observances,
delighting in giving, non-harming and non-violence,
firmly undertaken, perfectly practiced,
that kamma by which he went to the deva world,
and experienced pleasure and enjoyment.
Having passed away from there, coming again to this world,
by which he is one who touches his feet evenly on the earth.
The auspicious sign interpreters having assembled, they declared:
his even stance will be unshakeable,
for a householder or again for one gone forth,
that auspicious sign clearly expresses that meaning.

 He is unshakeable living at home,
 conqueror of other enemies, crushing his enemies,
 any human being in this world. The fruits of kamma for him is unshakeability.
 But if that such-like one goes forth,
 delighting in the desire for renunciation, seeing clearly,
 being the foremost, he surely does not go to shakeability,
 the greatest of men, indeed, this, for him is the natural course.”

(2) Duties of a wheel turning monarch result in wheel underneath the soles of his feet which prognosticates great retinue

49. Also whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, that the Tathagata, while being a human being, was a bringer of happiness to many people, a dispeller of fear, terror and dread, provider of rightful protection and guard, and gave offerings with all accompaniments;

50. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

51. A thousand-spoked wheel is shaped under the soles of his feet, with rim and hub, complete in all aspects.

52. Endowed with that auspicious sign, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

53. Being a king, what does he gain?

54. He has a great retinue. His great retinue consists of brahmins and householders, town and country folks, accountants, great ministers, elders, gatekeepers, privy councillors, the king's assembly, revenue collectors, sons.

55. Being a king, this is what he gains.
56. If he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world.
57. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?
58. He has a great retinue. His great retinue consists of bhikkhus, bhikkhunis, male lay disciples, female lay disciples, devas, humans, asuras, nagas, and gandhabbas.
59. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.
60. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

In a former, previous, past birth
 when he was a human being, a bringer of happiness to many,
 driving away alarm and fear,
 energetic in guard, protection and security.
 that kamma by which he went to the diva world,
 and experienced pleasure and enjoyment.
 Having passed away from there, coming again
 to this world,
 he is one who gains wheels on both feet.

with a rim all around, and a thousand spokes.
 The auspicious sign interpreters having assembled,
 they declared:
 having seen the auspicious sign of much merit
 on the boy,
 with a following he will be a crusher of enemies,
 thus indeed there are wheels with a rim all around.
 if such a one does not go forth,
 he rules the earth, turning the wheel,
 the khattiyas are obedient to him here,
 they surround the one of great glory.
 But if that such-like one goes forth,
 delighting in the desire for renunciation, seeing clearly,
 devas, humans, valiant yakkhas and rakkhasas,
 gandhabbas, nagas, birds and quadrupeds,
 surrounded by devas and humans, they worship
 the unsurpassed one of great glory.

(3-5) Abstinence from killing results in high heels which prognosticates long life

stained from killing living beings. Having buried the rod, having buried the sword, he dwelled conscientious, with kindness and sympathy, compassionate for the welfare of all living beings;

62. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

63. [He acquired] high heels, long fingers and brahma-like straight [body].

64. Endowed with those auspicious signs, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

65. Being a king, what does he gain?

66. He is long lived, endures for a long time, protects his longevity. It is not possible for any internal opponent or adversary who is a human being to deprive him of life.

67. Being a king, this is what he gains.

68. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?

69. He is long lived, endures for a long time, protects his longevity. It is not possible for any internal opponent or adversary who is a samana or brahmana or deva or mara or Brahma or any one in the world to deprive him of life.

70. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.

71. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

Having known for himself the danger of death
and slaughter,
he abstained from the slaying of others.
By [that] good conduct he went to heaven,
and experienced the fruits and results of what was well done.

Having passed away from there, coming again
 to this world,
 he gains three auspicious signs here,
 having broad and high heels,
 brahma-like straight [body] with beautiful well-
 formed limbs.
 With beautiful arms, the young boy is nicely
 shaped, properly formed.
 His soft and tender fingers are long,
 three auspicious signs of the foremost of excellent men,
 they reveal the boy living for a long time.
 If he is a lay person, he continues to live for a long time,
 longer still if he goes forth, that is because he prolongs his life from the mastery of psychic power.
 Thus, longevity is the prognosis of that sign.

(6) Giver of excellent food and drinks results in seven muscular features which prognosticates being a recipient of exquisite and delicious hard and soft foods

72. Also whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, that the Tathagata, while being a human being, was a giver of excellent and delicious hard foods, soft foods, delicacies, lickables, and drinks;

73. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

74. He has the seven muscular features. He is muscular on both hands, muscular on both legs, muscular on both shoulders, muscular on the torso.

75. Endowed with that auspicious sign, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

76. Being a king, what does he gain?

77. He is a gainer of excellent and delicious hard foods, soft foods, delicacies, lickables, and drinks.

78. Being a king, this is what he gains.

79. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?

80. He is a gainer of excellent and delicious hard foods, soft foods, delicacies, lickables, and drinks.

81. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.

82. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

Hard and soft foods, tasteables and lickables,
he was a giver of the finest tasting delicacies.
By that good conduct and kamma,
he rejoiced for a long time in the Nandana [grove].

Here he obtains the seven muscular features,
he acquires soft and tender palms and feet.
Those skilled in marks and signs said,
he is one who gains the taste of hard and soft foods.

That expresses the meaning for a lay person.
One gone forth too, becomes a gainer of unsurpassed hard and soft foods,

they have said, of the one who has severed all bonds to the household life.

(7-8) Four grounds for sustaining favorable relations results in soft and tender palms and feet with net-like finger and sole prints which prognosticates harmonious retinue

83. Also whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, that the Tathagata, while being a human being, was one who performed kind treatment to people [based on] the four grounds for sustaining favorable relations, [that is] by giving, endearing speech, beneficial conduct and impartiality;

84. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

85. [He acquired] soft and tender palms and feet and palms and feet with net-like finger and sole prints.

86. Endowed with those auspicious signs, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

87. Being a king, what does he gain?

88. He has a harmonious retinue. His harmonious retinue consists of brahmins and householders, town and country folks, accountants, great ministers, elders, gatekeepers, privy councillors, the king's assembly, revenue collectors, sons.

89. Being a king, this is what he gains.

90. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?

91. He has a harmonious retinue. His harmonious retinue consists of bhikkhus, bhikkhunis, male lay disciples, female lay disciples, devas, humans, asuras, nagas, and gandhabbas.

92. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.

93. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

Giving and also beneficial conduct,
 endearing speech and commonality of interest,
 having done and performed much kind treatment,
 by such non-despising quality, one proceeds to heaven.
 Having passed away from there, coming again to this world,
 soft and tender palms and feet with net-like finger and sole prints,
 he gains as a young tender boy,
 very attractive, handsome and good looking.
 the people around [him] are submissive and obedient,
 this great [retinue] live well-harmonized.
 Endearing in his speech, desiring their welfare and happiness,
 he is pleasing in virtuous conduct.
 But if he abandons all enjoyment of sensual pleasures,
 the victor teach Dhamma discourse,
 the people having heard, act according to his instructions.

With complete confidence, they practice the Dhamma in accordance with the Dham-ma.

(9-10) Dhamma offering results in arched feet and curly body hair which prognosticates becoming foremost among all beings

94. Also whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, that the Tathagata, while being a human being, was one who gave the Dhamma offering for many people, taught many people, a speaker of speech connected with meaning, connected with Dhamma, bringing welfare and happiness to living beings.

95. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

96. [He acquired] arched feet and curly body hair.

97. Endowed with those auspicious signs, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

98. Being a king, what does he gain?

99. He is the foremost, best, chief, highest, most excellent of those who enjoy sensual pleasures.

100. Being a king, this is what he gains.

101. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?

102. He is the foremost, best, chief, highest, most excellent of all beings.

103. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.

104. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

“Formally utterances connected with meaning and Dhamma,
a teacher arousing many people,
he was a bringer of welfare and happiness to living beings.)

One who offered the Dhamma offering, free
from stinginess.

By that good conduct and kamma,
one goes to a happy destination and rejoices
there,

and having come here, being the highest and foremost,

he gains two auspicious signs.

With curly body hair, and ankle well-established.

filled with flesh and blood covered with skin,
his movements were exceedingly beautiful.

if such a person dwells at home,

he becomes the foremost of those who enjoy
sensual pleasures,

one higher than him is not to be found.

He lives having conquered the earth.

But also one gone forth, being of superior energy,

he becomes the foremost of all living beings,

one higher than him is not to be found.

he dwells having conquered the entire world.”

(11) hunches like antelope

105. Also whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, that the Tathagata, while being a human being, was a respectful teacher of craft or science or practice or work [thinking], ‘how may these quickly understand, how may these quickly follow along and not suffer distress for long.

106. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

107. [He acquired] hunches like antelope.

108. Endowed with that auspicious sign, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

109. Being a king, what does he gain?

110. That which is worthy of a king, a factor of a king, useful for a king, suitable for a king, he is one who gains it quickly.

111. Being a king, this is what he gains.

112. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?

113. That which is worthy of a samana, a factor of a samana, useful for a samana, suitable for a samana, he is one who gains it quickly.

114. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.

115. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

“In craft, science, practice and work,
he wishes, how may they understand swiftly.

which does not hurt anyone,
 he teaches quickly so they do not suffer distress
 for long.

Having done that wholesome kamma with pleasant consequences,

he gains a beautiful calf well established,
 round, properly formed, gradually swelling,
 with curly body hair finely covered with skin.
 “with calves like an antelope,” they have said
 of that individual

the auspicious sign here [indicates] quickness of success, they have said.

the one who desire what is suitable for the home,

not going forth he quickly comes back here.
 But if that such-like one obtains the going
 forth,

delighting in the desire for renunciation, seeing clearly,

whenever it is suitable and fitting,
 he quickly gains that, having superior energy.”

(12) Approaching samanās and brahmanas to ask questions results in delicate skin which prognosticates great wisdom

116. Also whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, that the Tathagata, while being a human being, having approached a samana or brahmana, asked them questions: “What, O Bhante, is wholesome? What is unwholesome? What is blameworthy? What is blameless? What should be associated with? What should not be associated with? What is it that when undertaken, leads to one’s harm and suffering for a long time? What is it that when undertaken, leads to one’s welfare and happiness for a long time?”

117. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

118. [He acquired] skin so delicate that dust and dirt do not smear it.

119. Endowed with that auspicious sign, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

120. Being a king, what does he gain?

121. He is of great wisdom. For him among those who enjoy sensual pleasures, there is not anyone superior or equal to him in wisdom.

122. Being a king, this is what he gains.

123. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?

124. He is of great wisdom, vast wisdom, cheerful wisdom, swift wisdom, sharp wisdom, penetrative wisdom. For him among all beings, there is not anyone superior or equal to him in wisdom.

125. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.

126. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

“In a former, previous, past birth
wishing to understand, he asked questions,

wishing to hear, he sat at the feet of those gone
 forth,
 intent on the meaning he listened attentively
 to talk on the meaning.
 gone for the purpose of obtaining wisdom by kamma.

As a human being, he was one of delicate skin.

Those skilled in auspicious birth signs said,
 having penetrated, he is one who sees the subtle meaning.

if such a one like that does not obtain the going
 forth,

he rules the earth, turning the wheel.

In instructions and grasp of the meaning,
 there is not anyone superior or equal to him.
 if that such-like one obtains the going forth,
 delighting in the desire for renunciation, seeing clearly,

he gains distinction in wisdom unsurpassed,
 he attains awakening with superior and vast wisdom.”

(13) Non-anger and giver of fine materials result in good colored golden sheen complexion which prognosticates recipient of fine, soft spreads and coverings

127. Also whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, that the Tathagata, while being a human being, was not prone to anger and easily annoyed. When being provoked even a lot, he did not lose temper, became angry, upset, outraged, stubborn and displayed anger, hate and bitterness. He was a giver of fine and soft coverings and blankets, of fine linen, of fine cotton, of fine silk, of fine wool.

128. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

129. [He acquired] good colored golden sheen complexion.

130. Endowed with that auspicious sign, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

131. Being a king, what does he gain?

132. He is a gainer of fine and soft coverings and blankets, of fine linen, of fine cotton, of fine silk, of fine wool.

133. Being a king, this is what he gains.

134. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?

135. He is a gainer of fine and soft coverings and blankets, of fine linen, of fine cotton, of fine silk, of fine wool.

136. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.

137. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

“Not prone to anger and gave with determination,
 offering of fine cloth, soft on the skin.
 In a previous existence, he was one who stood firm on giving away,
 like the rain deva pouring down on the mighty earth.
 having done that, passing away from here, he arose in heaven.
 having enjoyed the results and consequence
 of good kamma,
 here he wins a [skin] resembling gold,
 like inda, most excellent among the devas.
 the man dwells at home desiring not to go
 forth,
 he governs the extensive mighty earth, having conquered it. Indeed and he gains the seven treasures,
 and a spotless and pure delicate skin.
 a gainer of clothing, garment, and cloaks.
 If he gains the homeless state, indeed he enjoys the fruit of what was formally done.
 There is no loss of what was done.”
