1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Savatthi in Jeta's Grove, Anathapindikā's Park. At that place the Auspicious One addressed the bhikkhus. "Bhikkhus." "Yes, Bhante" those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

evaṃ me sutāṃ: ekaṃ samayaṃ bhagavā sāvatthiyaṃ viharati jetavane anāthapiṇḍikassa ārāme. tatra kho bhagavā bhikkhū āmantesi bhikkhavoti. bhadanteti te bhikkhu bhagavato paccassosun, bhagavā etadavoca:

ariyaṃ vo bhikkhave, sammāsamādhin desissāmi saupanisaṃ sapaṛikkhāraṃ. taṃ suṇātha, sādhu-kaṃ manasi karotha, bhāssissāmīti.

3. "Yes Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. the Auspicious One said this:

4. And what, O bhikkhus, is noble right samadhi with its supports, with its requisites? That is: right view, right thought, right speech, right action, right livelihood, right effort, right mindfulness. That which, O bhikkhus, is the unique loftiness of mind equipped with these seven factors. This is called, O bhikkhus, noble right samadhi with its supports proper, with its requisites proper.

There are no fruits and results of kamma, of what is well done and badly done. There is not this world, there is not another world, there is not mother, there is not father, there are no beings from spontaneous birth, there is not in the world samanas and brahmanas who have come to the right path, entered upon the right path, those who, having realized by themselves this world and the other world with supreme knowledge, they cause to make it known.” This, O bhikkhus, is wrong view.
