

0.0.1 Difficult to do

dukkarasuttaṃ

1. “What, O friend Sariputta, is difficult to do in this Dhamma and Discipline?”

kinnu kho āvuso sārīputta imasmiṃ dhammavinaye dukkaranti.

2. “Going forth, O friend, is difficult to do in this Dhamma and Discipline.”

pabbajjā kho āvuso imasmiṃ dhammavinaye dukkarāti.

3. “But O friend, what is difficult to do by one who has gone forth?”

pabbajitena panāvuso kiṃ dukkaranti.

4. “Delighting [in renunciation] is difficult to do, O friend, by one who has gone forth.”

pabbajitena kho āvuso abhirati dukkarāti.

5. “But O friend, what is difficult to do by one who delights [in renunciation]?”

abhiratena pana āvuso kiṃ dukkaranti.

6. “To tread the path of dhamma that accords with the Dhamma, O friend, is difficult to do by one who delights [in renunciation].”

abhiratena kho āvuso dhammānudhammapaṭipatti dukkarāti.

7. “But O friend, would it take long for a bhikkhu who is treading on the path of dhamma that accords with the Dhamma to become an arahant?”

kīva ciraṃ panāvuso dhammānudhammapaṭipanno bhikkhu araham assāti.

8. “Not long, O friend.”

na ciraṃ āvusoti.

