

0.0.1 Difficult to do

1. “What, O friend Sariputta, is difficult to do in this Dhamma and Discipline?”
2. “Going forth, O friend, is difficult to do in this Dhamma and Discipline.”
3. “But O friend, what is difficult to do by one who has gone forth?”
4. “Delighting [in renunciation] is difficult to do, O friend, by one who has gone forth.”
5. “But O friend, what is difficult to do by one who delights [in renunciation]?”
6. “To tread the path of dhamma that accords with the Dhamma, O friend, is difficult to do by one who delights [in renunciation].”
7. “But O friend, would it take long for a bhikkhu who is treading on the path of dhamma that accords with the Dhamma to become an arahant?”
8. “Not long, O friend.”