1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Rajagaha in the Bamboo Grove, at the Squirrels' Feeding Place. Then Talaputa, the producer of comedy shows, visited with the Auspicious One. Upon arrival, having bowed down to the Auspicious One, he sat down to one side. Having sat down to one side, Talaputa, the producer of comedy shows, said this to the Auspicious One: "This have been heard by me, O Bhante, from former comedians, Teachers of teachers, saying: "The comedian who on centre stage in the middle of a show speaks with distortion of the truth to cause people to amuse themselves, with the breakup of the body, after death, arises in companionship with the devas of great amusement." Here, what does the Auspicious

Also for a second time, Talaputa, the producer of comedy shows, said this to the Auspicious One: “This have been heard by me, O Bhante, from former comedians, Teachers of teachers, saying: “The comedian who on centre stage in the middle of a show speaks with distortion of the truth to cause people to amuse themselves, with the breakup of the body, after death, arises in companionship with the devas of great amusement.” Here, what does the Auspicious One have to say about this?” “Enough Producer, leave this be. 4. Certainly, I, O Producer, could not gain your [consent] with this: “Enough Producer, leave this be. Do not ask me this.” So then, I will answer you. things that are provocative of lust for increasing their lust even more. Beings, O Producer, who are formerly not free from hate, bounded to the bond of hate, for them a comedian at centre stage in the middle of a show draws their mind to things that are provocative of hate for increasing their hate even more. Beings, O Producer, who are formerly not free from delusion, bounded to the bond of delusion, for them a comedian at centre stage in the middle of a show draws their mind to things that are provocative of delusion for increasing their delusion even more. He himself being intoxicated and negligent, having caused others to be intoxicated and negligent, with the breakup of the body, after death, arises there in the hell called amusement.

5. But if he is of such a view: “The comedian who on centre stage in the middle of a show speaks with distortion of the truth to cause people to amuse themselves, with the breakup of the body, after death, arises in companionship with the devas of great amusement,” that is wrong view. For an individual of wrong view, O Producer, his destiny is a certain one of these two destinies, I say. “Either the hell realm or the animal womb.”

6. When thus was said, Tala-puta, the producer of comedy shows, cried out, bursted out in tears.

7. I could not gain your [consent] with this: “Enough

8. I, O Bhante, am not crying because of this which the Auspicious One has said to me thus. Rather, I, O Bhante, I have been defrauded, deceived, and misled by former comedians, Teachers of teachers, saying: “The comedian who on centre stage in the middle of a show speaks with distortion of the truth to cause people to amuse themselves, with the breakup of the body, after death, arises in companionship with the devas of great amusement.”
