

0.0.1 The Major Exposition on Dhamma Undertakings

1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Savatthi in Jeta's Grove, Anathapindikā's Park. At that place the Auspicious One addressed the bhikkhus: "Bhikkhus." "Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

2. "The majority of beings, O bhikkhus, mostly have such a liking, such a desire, such a yearning: "O, that unwished for, disagreeable, unpleasing things would diminish and wished for, agreeable, pleasing things would increase. For those beings, O bhikkhus, having such a liking, such a desire, such a yearning, unwished for, disagreeable, unpleasing things increase and wished for, agreeable, pleas-

The Auspicious One is our refuge. Certainly, please let the meaning of this statement be only evident to the Auspicious One. Having heard of this from the Auspicious One, the bhikkhus will bear it in mind." Well then, O bhikkhus, listen to that and do mind it well, I will speak." "Yes Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:
