1. Thus was heard by me:
At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling in Sāvatti at Jeta's Grove, Anathapin-dika's Park. In that place the venerable Sariputta addressed the bhikkhus: "Friend bhik-khus." "Friend!" those bhik-khus replied to the venerable Sariputta. The venerable Sariputta said this:

2. "Right view, right view," friends, it is said. To what extent, O friends, is a noble disciple ever one of right view, one of straightened view, one endowed with confirmed faith in the Dhamma, having arrived at this true Dhamma?"

3. "We, O friend, would presence of the venerable Sariputta to understand the meaning of this statement. Certainly, please let the meaning of this statement be only evident to the venerable Sariputta. Having heard of this [from] the venerable Sariputta, the bhikkhus will bear it in mind.” “Well then, friends, listen and do mind it well. I will speak.” “Yes friend.” Those bhikkhus replied to the venerable Sariputta. The venerable Sariputta said this:

view is unwholesome, this, O friends, is said to be the unwholesome.

7. And what, O friends, is the root of the unwholesome? Greed is the root of the unwholesome, hatred is the root of the unwholesome, delusion is the root of the unwholesome. This, O friends, is said to be the root of the unwholesome.

8. And what, O friends, is the wholesome? Abstinence from killing living beings is wholesome, abstinence from taking what is not given is wholesome, abstinence from misconduct in sensual pleasures is wholesome, abstinence from false speech is wholesome, abstinence from malicious speech is wholesome, abstinence from harsh speech is wholesome, absti-
