

0.0.1 Clothes

1. What must be done, O bhikkhus, [by] one whose clothes or [hair] on the head is in flames? Now, O Bhante, what must be done by one whose clothes or [hair] on the head is in flames is to [arouse] exceeding desire, effort, endurance, exertion, zeal, mindfulness and contemplative only for quenching that [fire] on the clothes or [hair] on the head. One whose clothes or [hair] on head is in flames, O bhikkhus, having looked on with indifference, having not paid attention, ought to [arouse] exceeding desire, effort, endurance, exertion, zeal, mindfulness and contemplative for the breakthrough if one has not made the breakthrough to the four noble truths as they have come to be. Which four? The noble truth of suffering, the noble truth of the arising of suffering, the noble celasuttaṃ

āditte bhikkhave,
cele vā sīse vā ki-
massa karaṇīyanti?
āditte ca pana bhante,
cele vā sīse vā tas-
seva celassa vā sī-
sassa vā nibbāpa-
nāya adhimatto chando
ca vāyāmo ca ussāho
ca ussolhi ca appaṭi-
vānī ca sati ca sam-
pajaññaṇca karaṇī-
yanti. ādittaṃ bhik-
khave, celam vā sī-
sam vā ajjhupekkhi-
tvā¹ amanasikaritvā
anabhisametānaṃ
catunnaṃ ariyasac-
cānaṃ yathābhūtaṃ
abhisamayāya adhi-
matto chando ca vā-
yāmo ca ussāho ca
ussolhi ca appaṭivānī
ca sati ca sampajañ-
ñaṇca karaṇīyaṃ.

¹anajjupekkhitvā-sīmu, sī 1,
2. ■

truth of the cessation of suffering, the noble truth of the path leading to the cessation of suffering.

2. Therefore, O bhikkhus, an endeavour should be made [to realize]: “This is suffering.” An endeavour should be made [to realize]: “This is the origination of suffering.” An endeavour should be made [to realize]: “This is the cessation of suffering.” An endeavour should be made [to realize]: “This is the path leading to the cessation of suffering.”

katamesaṃ catuṇ-
naṃ: dukkhassa ari-
yasaccassa, dukkha-
samudayassa ariya-
saccassa, dukkhani-
rodhassa ariyasac-
cassa, dukkhaniro-
dhagāminī paṭipa-
dāya ariyasaccassa.

tasmātiha bhikkhave,
"idaṃ dukkhanti"
yogo karaṇīyo, "ayaṃ
dukkhasamudayoti"
yogo karaṇīyo, "ayaṃ
dukkhanirodhoti"
yogo karaṇīyo, "ayaṃ
dukkhanirodhagā-
minī paṭipadāti" yogo karaṇīyoti.
