

0.0.1 The Shorter Discourse on Analysis of Kamma

1. Thus, was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Savatthi in Jeta's Grove, Anathapindikā's Park. Then the brahmin youth Subha, Todeyya's son, visited with the Auspicious One. Upon arrival, he exchanged friendly greetings with the Auspicious One. Having exchange friendly greetings and cordial talk, he sat down to one side. Having sat down to one side, the brahmin youth Subha, Todeyya's son, said this to the Auspicious One:

2. What, O Master Gotama, is the cause, what is the reason why for human beings, for those who have come into being as humans, inferiority and superiority are clearly

For indeed, Master Gotama, human beings are seen to be short lived, long lived, of much sickness, of little sickness, ugly, beautiful, of little influence, of great influence, of little wealth, of great wealth, of lowly regarded families, of highly regarded families, unwise, wise. What, O Master Gotama, is the cause, what is the reason why for human beings, for those who have come into being as humans, inferiority and superiority are clearly seen.

3. “Beings, O Young Brahmin, are owners of their kamma, heirs of their kamma, born of their kamma, descendants of their kamma, have kamma as their refuge. It is

4. I do not understand the detailed meaning of this statement that Master Gotama has given in brief without expounding the meaning in detail. May Master Gotama teach me the Dhamma in such a way that I can understand the detailed meaning of this statement that Master Gotama has given in brief without expounding the detail.

but comes to the human state, then wherever he or she is born, he or she is wise. This, O Young Brahmin, is treading the path that leads to wisdom. That is, being one who, having approached a samana or brahmana, asks them questions: “What, O Bhante, is wholesome? What is unwholesome? What is blameworthy? What is blameless? What should be associated with? What should not be associated with? What is it that when undertaken, leads to one’s harm and suffering for a long time? What is it that when undertaken, leads to one’s welfare and happiness for a long time?”

21. Thus, O Young Brahmin, treading the path that leads to short life makes one short lived; treading the path that leads to longevity makes

I go, to the Auspicious Gotama, as refuge, and to the Dhamma, and to the Sangha of bhikkhus. May Master Gotama bear it in mind, that I am a lay disciple who has gone for refuge from today for as long as life lasts.”
