lakkhaṇasuttam

1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at One addressed the bhikkhus: “Bhikkhus.” “Bhante,” those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

evaṃ me sutam: ekaṃ samayaṃ bhagavā sāvatthiyaṃ viharati jetavane anāthapiṇḍikassa ārāme. tatra kho bhagavā bhikkhū āmantesi ‘bhikkhavo’ti. ‘bhadante’ti1 te bhikkhū bhagavato paccassosum. bhagavā etadavoca:

2. The thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. If he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword. If however, he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

48. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

etamatthaṃ bhagavā avoca. tatthetaṃ vuccati:

“In truth and in Dhamma, in taming and in self-control, in integrity, relying on virtue and uposatha observances, delighting in giving, non-harming and nonviolence,
firmly undertaken, perfectly practiced, that kamma by which he went to the diva world,
and experienced pleasure and enjoyment.
Having passed away from there, coming again to this world, by which he is one who touches his feet evenly on the earth.
The auspicious sign interpreters having assembled, they declared:

his even stance will be unshakeable, for a householder or again for one gone forth, that auspicious sign clearly expresses that meaning.

he is unshakeable living at home conqueror of other enemies, crushing his enemies, any human being in this world, the fruits of kamma for him is unshakeability.

But if that such-like one goes forth, delighting in the desire for renunciation, seeing clearly,

being the foremost, he surely does not go to shakeability,

the greatest of men, indeed, this, for him is

and experienced pleasure and enjoyment.
Having passed away from there, coming again to this world, he is one who gains wheels on both feet.

bled, they declared:
 having seen the auspicious sign of much merit on the boy,
 with a following he will be a crusher of enemies, thus indeed there are wheels with a rim all around.
 if such a one does not go forth, he rules the earth, turning the wheel, the khattiyas are obedient to him here, they surround the one of great glory.
 But if that such-like one goes forth,
 ing clearly,
 devas, humans, valiant yakkhas and rakkhasas, gandhabbas, nagas, birds and quadrupeds, surrounded by devas and humans, they worship the unsurpassed one of great glory.
