1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at One addressed the bhikkhus: “Bhikkhus.” “Bhante,” those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

2. The thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. If he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword. If however, he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world. What are those thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. If he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. The three good conducts results in firmly planted feet which prognosticates unsheakability (1)

37. Whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, while the Tathagata, being a human being, firmly undertook wholesome dhammas, continuously undertaking good bodily conduct, good verbal conduct, good mental conduct, giving and sharing, undertaking and observing the uposatha precepts, duly paying respects to mother, duly paying respects to father, duly paying respects to samanas, duly paying respects to brahmanas, duly paying respects to family elders, and any other highly wholesome dhammas.

38. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.
