

0.0.1 Auspicious Signs

1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at One addressed the bhikkhus: “Bhikkhus.” “Bhante,” those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

2. The thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. If he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword. If however, he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world. What are those thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. If he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword. 35. These are the thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. If he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword. If however, he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world.

36. These thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, are also borne in mind by outside seers. But they don't understand: "It is because of having done this kamma that this auspicious sign is obtained."

The three good conducts results in firmly planted feet which prognosticates unsheakability (1)

37. Whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, while the Tathagata, being a human being, firmly undertook wholesome dhammas, continuously undertaking good bodily conduct, good verbal conduct, good mental conduct, giving and sharing, undertaking and observing the uposatha precepts, duly paying respects to mother, duly paying respects to father, duly paying respects to samanas, duly paying respects to brahmanas, duly paying respects to family elders, and any other highly wholesome dhammas.

38. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

39. He has firmly planted feet. He places his feet down on the ground evenly, he lifts them up evenly, he touches the entire soles of his feet on the ground evenly.

40. Endowed with that auspicious sign, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

41. Being a king, what does he gain?

42. He is unshakeable by any human being who is an opponent, an adversary.

43. Being a king, this is what he gains.

44. If however, he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world.

45. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?

46. He is unshakeable with regard to internal or external opponents or adversaries, whether by lust or hate or delusion or by a samana or brahmana or deva or mara or Brahma or any one in the world.

47. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.

48. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

“In truth and in Dhamma, in taming and in self-control,
in integrity, relying on virtue and uposatha observances, delighting in giving, non-harming and non-violence, firmly undertaken, perfectly practiced,
that kamma by which he went to the diva world,
and experienced pleasure and enjoyment.
Having passed away from there, coming again to this world,
by which he is one who touches his feet evenly on the earth.
The auspicious sign interpreters having assembled, they declared:
his even stance will be unshakeable,
for a householder or again for one gone forth,
that auspicious sign clearly expresses that meaning.

 he is unshakeable living at home conqueror of other enemies, crushing his enemies,
 any human being in this world, the fruits of kamma for him is unshakeability.
 But if that such-like one goes forth, delighting in the desire for renunciation, seeing clearly,
 being the foremost, he surely does not go to shakeability,
 the greatest of men, indeed, this, for him is the natural course.”

Duties of a wheel turning monarch results in wheel underneath the soles of his feet which prognosticates great retinue (2)

49. Also whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, while the Tathagata, being a human being, was a bringer of happiness to many people, a dispeller of fear, terror and dread, provider of rightful protection and guard, and gave offerings with all accompaniments.

50. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

51. A thousand-spoked wheel is shaped under the soles of his feet, with rim and hub, complete in all aspects.

52. Endowed with that auspicious sign, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic, crushing the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

53. Being a king, what does he gain?

54. He has a great retinue. His great retinue consists of brahmins and householders, town and country folks, accountants, great ministers, elders, gatekeepers, privy councillors, the king's assembly, revenue collectors, sons.

55. Being a king, this is what he gains.
56. If he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world.
57. Being a Buddha, what does he gain?
58. He has a great retinue. His great retinue consists of bhikkhus, bhikkhunis, male lay disciples, female lay disciples, devas, humans, asuras, nagas, and gandhabbas.
59. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.
60. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

In a former, previous, past birth when he was a human being, a bringer of happiness to many,
 driving away alarm and fear,
 energetic in guard, protection and security.
 that kamma by which he went to the divine world,
 and experienced pleasure and enjoyment.
 Having passed away from there, coming again to this world,
 he is one who gains wheels on both feet.

with a rim all around, and a thousand spokes.
 The auspicious sign interpreters having assembled,
 they declared:
 having seen the auspicious sign of much merit
 on the boy,
 with a following he will be a crusher of enemies, thus indeed there are wheels with a rim all around.
 if such a one does not go forth,
 he rules the earth, turning the wheel,
 the khattiyas are obedient to him here,
 they surround the one of great glory.
 But if that such-like one goes forth, delighting in the desire for renunciation, seeing clearly,
 devas, humans, valiant yakkhas and rakkhasas, gandhabbas, nagas, birds and quadrupeds, surrounded by devas and humans, they worship
 the unsurpassed one of great glory.
