

0.0.1 Thirsting the Entangler

1. “O bhikkhus, for you I will teach [about] thirsting, the entangler, the swiftly flowing, the freely spreading, the adhesion, which having enshrouded this world, enwrapped [it], tangled [it] up like string, a knotted ball of thread, a twisted mass of reeds and rushes, [it] goes not beyond the lower worlds, the unhappy destination, the woeful plane, samsara. You do listen to that [and] mind it well. I will speak”. “Yes Bhante,” those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

2. And what, O bhikkhus, is that thirsting, the entangler, the swiftly flowing, the freely spreading, the adhesion, which having enshrouded this world, enwrapped [it], tangled [it] up like string, a knotted ball of thread, a

3. This, O bhikkhus, is the undertaking of the eighteen internal all-encompassing thirsting, the undertaking of the eighteen external all-encompassing thirsting.

4. What is the undertaking of the eighteen internal all-encompassing thirsting? When there is “I am”, O bhikkhus, “I am such” comes to be, “I am thus comes to be, I am otherwise” comes to be, “I am bad” comes to be, “I am good” comes to be, ‘is’ comes to be, is such comes to be, is thus comes to be, is otherwise comes to be, might be comes to be, might be such comes to be, might be thus comes to be, might be oth-
