

0.1 All the Asavas

sabbāsavasuttam

1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Savatthi in Jeta's Grove, Anathapindika's Park. At that place the Auspicious One addressed the bhikkhus: "Bhikkhus." "Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

evam me¹ sutam. ekam samayaṃ bhagavā sāvatthiyaṃ viharati jetavane anāthapiṇḍikassa ārāme. tatra kho bhagavā bhikkhū āmantesi bhikkhavo'ti. bhadante'ti te bhikkhū bhagavato paccassosum. bhagavā etadavoca.

2. "O bhikkhus, I will teach you an exposition on the restraint of all the asavas. Listen to that and do mind it well, I will speak." "Yes Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

sabbāsavaṣaṃvarapariyāyaṃ vo bhikkhave desissāmi². taṃ suṇātha sādhukaṃ manasikarotha bhāsisāmi'ti. evaṃ bhante'ti kho te bhikkhū bhagavato paccassosum. bhagavā etadavoca.

3. It is from knowing, O bhikkhus, from seeing, that the extinction of the asavas come to be, I say, not from unknowing, not from unseeing. But knowing what, O bhikkhus, seeing what, does the extinction of the asavas come to be? Root-source consideration and non-root-source consideration. From non-root-source consideration, O bhikkhus, unarisen asavas arise and arisen asavas increase. But from root-source consideration, O bhikkhus, unarisen asavas do not arise and arisen asavas get abandoned.

5. And what, O bhikkhus, are the asavas that should be abandoned by seeing? Here, O bhikkhus, the Dhamma-deaf puthujjana, who does not possess the vision of the noble ones, not well-versed, not trained in the noble one's Dhamma, who does not possess the vision of the true persons, not well-versed, not trained in the true person's Dhamma, does not wisely understand the dhammas that should be attended to. He does not wisely understand the dhammas that should not be attended to. Not wisely understanding the dhammas that should be attended to, not wisely understanding the dhammas that should not be attended to, he attends to the dhammas that should not be attended to, he does not attend to the dhammas that should be attended to.

6. And what, O bhikkhus, are the dhammas that should not be attended to, that he attends to? They are, O bhikkhus, the dhammas that while attending to them, unarisen asavas of sensual desire arise and arisen asavas of sensual desire increase; unarisen asavas of being arise and arisen asavas of being increase; unarisen asavas of ignorance arise and arisen asavas of ignorance increase.

unarisen asavas of sensual desire do not arise and arisen asavas of sensual desire get abandoned; unarisen asavas of being do not arise and arisen asavas of being get abandoned; unarisen asavas of ignorance do not arise and arisen asavas of ignorance get abandoned.

It will remain just so forever and ever.” This, O bhikkhus, is called an entrenchment in views, a jungle of views, a desert of views, an entangling of views, a wriggling of views, a fetter of views. Yoked to the fetter of views, O bhikkhus, the Dhamma-deaf puthujjana is not freed from birth, old age, death, sorrow, lamentation, physical suffering, mental suffering, and despair. He is not freed from suffering, I say.”
