1. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling in Rajagaha at the Bamboo Grove, the Squirrel's feeding place. The brahmin Akkosaka Bharadvaja heard that apparently, a brahmin of the Bharadvaja clan has gone forth from the home life into homelessness in the presence of the samana Gotama. Angry and displeased, he approached the Auspicious One. Having approached, he insulted and abused the Auspicious One with vulgar and harsh speech.

2. When thus was said, the Auspicious One said this to the brahmin Akkosaka Bharadvaja: "So what do you think, O Brahmin? Do friends, colleagues, blood relations and guests visit [you]?"

4. “So what do you think, O Brahmin? Do you offer them some hard foods, soft foods and sweets?”

5. “Sometimes, O Master Gotama, I offer them some hard foods, soft foods and sweets.”

6. “But what if, O Brahmin, they do not accept that?”

7. “If, O Master Gotama, they do not accept, that is still ours.”

by the venerable Gotama in countless ways. I go, to the Auspicious Gotama, as refuge, and to the Dhamma, and to the Bhikkhu Sangha. May I gain the going forth in master Gotama's presence, may I obtain the higher ordination."

11. Indeed Akkosaka Bharadvaja, the wanderer, gained the going-forth in the Auspicious One's presence, gained the higher ordination. Not long after his higher ordination, the venerable Akkosaka Bharadvaja, dwelling alone, withdrawn, vigilant, ardent, resolute, not long entered upon and dwelled in that unsurpassed consummation of the life of purity for the sake of which sons of clans-
