1. Endowed with six dhammas, O bhikkhus, one is incapable of entering upon the fixed course of rightness in wholesome dhammas even while listening to the true dhamma. Which six?

2. When the Dhamma and Vinaya proclaimed by the Tathāgata are being taught, one does not wish to listen. One does not lend an ear attentively. One does not apply one's mind to understand it. One grasps the meaning wrongly. One neglects the meaning. One is endowed with a preferred view that is not in conformity [with the view of the noble ones].

3. Endowed with these six dhammas, O bhikkhus, one
