

0.1 All the Asavas

sabbāsavasuttam

1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Savatthi in Jeta's Grove, Anathapindika's Park. At that place the Auspicious One addressed the bhikkhus: "Bhikkhus." "Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

evam me¹ sutam. ekam samayaṃ bhagavā sāvatthiyaṃ viharati jetavane anāthapiṇḍikassa ārāme. tatra kho bhagavā bhikkhū āmantesi bhikkhavo'ti. bhadante'ti te bhikkhū bhagavato paccassosum. bhagavā etadavoca.

2. "O bhikkhus, I will teach you an exposition on the restraint of all the asavas. Listen to that and do mind it well, I will speak." "Yes Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

sabbāsavaṣaṃvarapariyāyaṃ vo bhikkhave desissāmi². taṃ suṇātha sādhukaṃ manasikarotha bhāssissāmi'ti. evaṃ bhante'ti kho te bhikkhū bhagavato paccassosum. bhagavā etadavoca.

3. It is from knowing, O bhikkhus, from seeing, that the extinction of the asavas come to be, I say, not from unknowing, not from unseeing. But knowing what, O bhikkhus, seeing what, does the extinction of the asavas come to be? Attention to the root-source and attention to the non-root-source. From attending to the non-root-source, O bhikkhus, unarisen asavas arise and arisen asavas increase. But from attending to the root-source, O bhikkhus, unarisen asavas do not arise and arisen asavas get abandoned.

34. And what, O bhikkhus, are the asavas to be abandoned by maturation? Here, O bhikkhus, with root reason reflection, a bhikkhu nurtures to maturation the mindfulness awakening factor, in dependence on seclusion, in dependence on fading away, in dependence on cessation, maturing in relinquishment.

42. From the time, O bhikkhus, for a bhikkhu, those asavas that should be abandoned by seeing have been abandoned by seeing, those asavas that should be abandoned by restraining have been abandoned by restraining, those asavas that should be abandoned by using have been abandoned by using, those asavas that should be abandoned by enduring have been abandoned by enduring, those asavas that should be abandoned by avoiding have been abandoned by avoiding, those asavas that should be abandoned by dispelling have been abandoned by dispelling, those asavas that should be abandoned by maturation have been abandoned by maturation, this, O bhikkhus, is called “a bhikkhu who dwells restrained by the restraint of all the asavas. He has cutoff thirsting, untied the fetters, and by rightly breaking through to conceit, has made an end of suffering.”
