

0.0.1 Auspicious Signs

lakkhaṇasuttaṃ

1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Savatthi in Jeta's Grove, Anathapindika's Park. At that place the Auspicious One addressed the bhikkhus: "Bhikkhus." "Bhante," those bhikkhus replied to the Auspicious One. The Auspicious One said this:

evaṃ me sutam: ekaṃ samayaṃ bhagavā sāvattiyā viharati jetavane anāthapiṇḍikassa ārāme. tatra kho bhagavā bhikkhū āmantesi 'bhikkhavo'ti. 'bhadante'ti1 te bhikkhū bhagavato paccassosum. bhagavā etadavoca:

2. There are thirty two auspicious signs of a great man, O bhikkhus, by which for the person endowed with those auspicious signs, there are only two destinies, no other. If he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic in form, overpowering the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword. If however, he goes forth from the home life into homelessness, then he becomes an arahant, a supremely awakened one, who rolls back the veil in the world. (1) The three good conducts result in firmly planted feet, which prognosticates unshakeability suppatiṭṭhitapādalakkhaṇaṃ (1)

37. Whatever former birth, O bhikkhus, former existence, former abode, that the Tathagata, while being a human being, firmly undertook wholesome dhammas, continuously undertaking good bodily conduct, good verbal conduct and good mental conduct, giving and sharing, upholding virtue and observing the uposatha precepts, duly paying respects to mother, father, samanas, brahmanas, family elders, and any other highly wholesome dhammas;

yampi bhikkhave, tathāgato purimaṃ jātiṃ purimaṃ bhavaṃ purimaṃ niketaṃ pubbe manusabhūto samāno dāhasamādāno ahosi kusalesu dhammesu avatthitasamādāno, kāyasucarite vacīsucarite manosucarite, dānasamvibhāge sīlasamādāne uposathupavāse mattheyyatāya pettheyyatāya sāmāññatāya brahmaññatāya kulejettāpācāyitāya aññataraññataresu ca adhikusalesu dham-

38. From the performance, amassment, accumulation, making abundant of that kamma, with the breakup of the body, after death, he arose in a happy destination, in a heavenly world. There he surpassed other devas on ten grounds: divine lifespan, divine beauty, divine pleasure, divine fame, divine influence, divine forms, divine sounds, divine aromas, divine flavors, divine tangibles. Passing away from there and coming into this state of being, he acquired this auspicious sign of a great man.

39. He has firmly planted feet. He places his feet down on the ground evenly, he lifts them up evenly, he touches the entire soles of his feet on the ground evenly.

suppatiṭṭhitapādo hoti, samaṃ pādaṃ bhūmiyaṃ nikkhipati, samaṃ uddharati, samaṃ sabbāvan-tehi pādālehi bhūmiṃ phusati.

40. Endowed with that auspicious sign, if he lives the home life, he becomes a wheel turning monarch, a righteous king ruling by the dhamma, victorious king of the world who has attained stability of the country, endowed with the seven gems. That is: The wheel gem, the elephant gem, the horse gem, the jewel gem, the woman gem, the head of household gem, with the counsellor gem as the seventh. He has more than a thousand sons who are courageous, heroic in form, overpowering the armies of others. He dwells having conquered by the Dhamma this earth bounded by the ocean without rod, without sword.

avikkhambhiyo hoti kenaci manussabhūtena pac-

47. Being a Buddha, this is what he gains.

buddho samāno idaṃ labhati.

48. This is the meaning of what the Auspicious One said. Thus, this was said there:

etamatthaṃ bhagavā avoca. tatthetaṃ vuccati:

“In truth and in Dhamma, in taming and in
self-control,
in integrity, relying on virtue and uposatha
observances,
delighting in giving, non-harming and non-
violence,
firmly undertaken, perfectly practiced.

sacce ca dhamme ca dame ca saṃyame

By that kamma, he went to the heavenly world, and experienced pleasure and enjoyment.

 Having passed away from there, coming again
 to this world,
 by which he is one who touches his feet evenly
 on the earth.

so tena kammēna divaṃ apakkami<sup>3</sup> sukhaṃ ca khīḍḍāraṭiyo ca anvabhi tato cavitvā punarāgato idha samehi pādehi phusī vasundharaṃ.

The auspicious sign interpreters having assembled,
 they declared:
 his even stance will be unshakeable,
 for a householder or again for one gone forth,
 that auspicious sign clearly expresses that meaning.
