1. Then, the brahmin Janussoni visited with the Auspicious One. Upon arrival, he exchanged friendly greetings with the Auspicious One. Having exchanged friendly greetings and cordial talk, he sat down to one side. Having sat down to one side, the brahmin Janussoni said this to the Auspicious One:

2. Indeed we brahmins, O Master Gotama, usually make food offerings when performing memorial rites [believing] “May this food offering be of benefit to our departed relatives and blood relations. May our departed relatives and blood relations enjoy this food offering.” “Do our departed relatives and blood relations, O Master Gotama, truly benefit from this food
