1. At one time, the Auspicious One was living at Rājagaha at the Bamboo Grove, the Squirrel's Feeding Place. Then Moliyasivaka, the wanderer, visited with the Auspicious One. Upon arrival, he exchanged friendly greetings with the Auspicious One. Having exchange friendly greetings and cordial talk, he sat down to one side. Having sat down to one side, Moliyasivaka, the wonderer, said this to the Auspicious One: "There are, O Master Gotama, some samanas and brahmanas who hold such doctrine, such view: "Whatever this individual person experiences, whether pleasure, pain or neither pain nor pleasure, all that is caused by what was done in the past." Herein what does the venerable Gotama say?"
