1. At one time, the venerable Mahakaccana was dwelling in Avanti at the Kuraraghara Pavatta mountain. Then the Kuraragharan female lay disciple, Kali, visited with the venerable Mahakaccana. Upon arrival, having bowed down to the venerable Mahakaccana, she sat down to one side. Having sat down to one side, the Kuraragharan female lay disciple, Kali, said this to the venerable Mahakaccana: This, O Bhante, was said by the Auspicious One in the maiden's questions:

“Having conquered the army of the dear and
the agreeable,
the attainment of the goal, the peace of the heart;
I meditate alone, awoken to pleasure;
therefore I don't make friends among people, nor does friendship with anyone succeeds with me.”

2. “For this, O Bhante, which was spoken by the Auspicious One in brief, how is the meaning to be seen in detail?”

3. Some samanas and brahmanas, O sister, actualized the earth kasina as the highest goal. The Auspicious One understood with supreme knowledge, the extent to which that earth kasina is supreme. Having understood that with supreme knowledge, the Auspicious one saw the beginning, saw the danger, saw the escape, saw the knowledge and vision of the path and the non-path.
