1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Icchanangala in the Icchanangala Forest Grove. At that time many well-known wealthy brahmins were dwelling at Icchānangala, such as: the brahmin Canki, the brahmin Tarukkha, the brahmin Pokkharasati, the brahmin Janussoṇi, the brahmin Todeyya, and many other well-known and wealthy brahmins.

2. Then brahmin youths Vasettha and Bharadvaja while walking and wandering about, walking along back and forth, this talk arose between them: “How indeed is one a brahmin?” The brahmin youth Bharadvaja said thus: “So far as, dear Sir, one is well borne, of pure descent from both the maternal and paternal sides as far back as seven generations, unblemished and irreproachable with regard to ancestry, it is to this extent, dear Sir, that one is a brahmin.” The brahmin youth Vasettha said thus: “So far as, dear Sir, one is virtuous and excels in religious duties, it is to this extent, dear Sir, that one is a brahmin.” Neither was the brahmin youth Bharadvaja able to convince the brahmin youth Vasettha, nor was the brahmin youth Vasettha able to convince the brahmin youth Bharadvaja.

3. So then, brahmin youth Vasettha address the brahmin youth, Bharadvaja. Master Bharadvaja, there is this samana Gotama, son of the Sakyans who has gone forth from the Sakyan clan, dwelling at Icchanangala in the Icchanangala Forest Grove. Now a good reputation has been spread about that Auspicious Gotama thus: “Truly is he the Auspicious One, the Arahant, rightly self-awakened, excelling in knowledge and conduct, well-farer, knower of worlds, incomparable charioteer of tamed persons, teacher of devas and humans, awakened, auspicious.” We must visit with the samana Gotama, O Master Bharadvaja. Upon arrival, we must ask the samana Gotama about this matter. In which ever way the samana Gotama will answer, in just that way we must bear it in mind.”

4. So then, the brahmin youths Vasettha and Bharadvaja visited with the Auspicious One. Having approached, they exchanged friendly greetings with the Auspicious One. Having exchanged friendly greetings and cordial talk, they sat down to one side. Having sat down to one side, the brahmin youth Vasettha addressed the Auspicious One in verse:

we are equal to our teachers in recitation.

For us in regard to ancestry,
there is a dispute, O Gotama;
one is a brahmin by birth, Bharadvaja speaks thus;
but I say by kamma,
know thus, O One Endowed with Eyes.

We are both unable,
to convince one another;
we have come to question the Auspicious One,

the Awakened One renowned as such.

As the newly formed waxing moon,
people worship with hands in anjali;
they paying homage to the moon,
so in the world is Gotama;
the eye arisen in the world,
we ask you Gotama.

Is one a brahmin by birth,
or by kamma;
tell us, we who do not know,
how we may know a brahmin.

For you, I will distinguish,
one and the other because of their species;

serpents, long backed crawlers;
their characteristics are made from birth,
one and the other because of their species.

Next know from the fishes in water too,
with water as their pasture;
their characteristics are made from birth,
one and the other because of their species.

Next know from the birds too,
 with wings as vehicles, going by the sky;
 their characteristics are made from birth,
 one and the other because of their species.

As among these species,
 there are various characteristics made from birth;
 these various characteristics made from birth,
 do not exist among humans.

Neither by head hairs nor by head,
 neither by ear nor by eyes;
 neither by face nor by nose,
 neither by mouth nor by eyebrows.

Neither by neck nor by shoulder,
 neither by stomach nor by back;
 neither by waist nor by breast, neither by genitals nor by mating.

Neither by hands nor by feet,
 neither by fingers nor by nails;
 neither by calf nor by thigh,
 neither by color nor by voice;
 certainly there are no characteristics made
 from birth,
 as in the case of other species.

Just as, O Bhante, one might set upright what has been overturned, or open up what has been closed, or show a path to one who is lost, or bear an oil lamp in the darkness so that those with good eyesight can see forms, just so has the Dhamma been explained by the venerable Gotama in countless ways. We go, O Bhante, to the Auspicious Gotama, as refuge, and to the Dhamma, and to the Sangha of bhikkhus. May Master Gotama bear it in mind, that we are lay disciples who have gone for refuge from today for as long as life lasts.”
