He emerges from and descend into the earth too, as if in water. He goes on water too, without it being pierced, as if on the ground. He moves cross-legged in the air too, as if a winged bird. These too, the sun and moon, so mighty, so majestic, he touches and strokes with his hand. He exerts control with his body, even as far as the Brahma world. This, O bhikkhus, is called superhuman power.

Here, O bhikkhus, a bhikkhu enculturates the basis for superhuman power endowed with desire-samadhi and the will-power for exertion; he enculturates the basis for superhuman power endowed with energy-samadhi and the will-power for exertion; he enculturates the basis for superhuman power endowed with samadhi state of mind and the will-power for exertion; he enculturates the basis for superhuman power endowed with investigation-samadhi and the will-power for exertion.
