

0.0.1 Ovada Patimokkha

The non-doing of all evil,
the ordination into the wholesome;183
the purifying of one's own states of mind
this is the teaching of the Buddhas.

Patience is the highest austere endurance,
nibbana is the foremost, so say the Buddhas; 184
the one gone forth who harms others, vexing [them];
is certainly not a samana.

Not insulting, not injuring,
being restrained in the patimokkha; 185
knowing the measure in food, and engaging in the higher mind
in solitary lodgings,
this is the teaching of the Buddhas.
