

0.0.1 Kamma

1. Thus was heard by me. At one time the Auspicious One was dwelling at Savatthi in Jeta's Grove, Anathapindikā's Park. On that occasion a certain bhikkhu was sitting not far from the Auspicious One, having crossed his legs, having directed his body straight, having established mindfulness on the entire field of perception [internally], he was forbearing feelings borne of past kamma results that are painful, piercing, sharp, being mindful and contemplative, without distress.

2. The Auspicious One saw that bhikkhu sitting not far, having crossed his legs, having directed his body straight, having established mindfulness on the entire field of perception [internally], forbearing feelings borne of past kamma results that are painful, piercing, sharp, being mindful and contemplative, without distress.

3. Then the Auspicious One, having understood the significance of this, uttered this inspired utterance:

“For the bhikkhu who is shaking off the dust of past kamma,
the abandoning of all
kamma;
For one like that, disown-
ing, unmoved,
There is no ambition to
chitchat with people.”
